different private parties, the film "Bichhanatabadir Chakranter Biruddhe" was recommended by the Revising Committee of the Central Board of Film Certification for grant of a 'U' certificate, subject to a few cuts in its visuals and dialogue. The applicant, however accepted only some of the cuts and then, instead of approaching the Film Certification Appellate Tribunal, as the normal practice, filed a case in the Calcutta High Court against the decision of the Board. On its hearing on 16.6.1989, the High Court of Calcutta has reserved its final judgement in the case. The matter is thus still sub-judice.

The other documentary, 'Manaber Adhikar' came up for certification before the Board on 11.3.1987. The Examining Committee of the Board recommended grant of a 'U' Certificate, with certain cuts. This was accepted by the applicant and the certificate was issued on 12.3.1987.
